

Four New Instructors Are Added to Staff of El Camino College

Addition of four new instructors to the division of humanities at El Camino College was announced today by Dr. William H. Harless, director of instruction.

The four newcomers bring the total number of instructors in the division, headed by Harry L. Ruby, assistant director of instruction, to 41. Among the largest of the college, the division includes the fields of foreign languages, English, philosophy, photography and journalism.

Miss Eileen Latham, new resident of Manhattan Beach, comes to the college from the University of California at Los Angeles, where she was awarded both the A.B. and M.A. degrees. She also attended Kent State University in Canton, Ohio and has completed course work in preparation for the Ph.D. degree.

Taught at U.C.L.A. Prior to joining the El Camino faculty, Miss Latham taught at UCLA and worked as network program manager of radio station KFI. She has also worked with a major advertising firm and served as a personnel assistant for a large industry. The new English instructor is a native of Ohio.

A native of Inglewood, Joseph S. Bloch completed his college work at the University of Southern California, where he received bachelor and master's degrees in arts and completed course work in preparation for the Ph.D. degree. He, too, teaches English.

Bloch has been a member of the faculties of Palms Junior High School, the University of Philippine Islands in Manila, Verdugo Hills High School and USC. He also served as a special agent for the United States Air Force.

A native Iowan, Robert G. Crowley, is the third addition to the English Department. He received his bachelor's degree in English at the University of California at Los Angeles and his master's from USC. He also attended Harvard University.

Crowley has taught at El Rodeo and Hawthorne schools in his home town of Beverly Hills and at John Burroughs High School in Burbank. He was an educational specialist with the United States Air Force and has had experience in insurance and other business fields.

New Philosophy Professor Teaching philosophy is Dr. Fitzhugh J. Dodson of Palos Verdes, a native of Maryland. Dr. Dodson completed his work for the A.B. degree at John Hopkins University in Baltimore, where he was graduate with cum laude honors. He holds a bachelor of divinity degree magna cum laude from Yale University Divinity School in New Haven, Conn. His doctorate was conferred by the University of Southern California, and he has also attended Union Theological Seminary in New York City and Lewis and Clark College in Portland, Ore.

Teachers Welcome Fiesta Held by North High PTA

The cafeteria at North High was the scene of a "Welcome Back to School" luncheon for approximately 125 teachers and personnel, Tuesday, at noon.

Decorations in the Mexican motif were carried out with authentic Mexican dolls, serapes, and guitars by Mrs. Robert Brigham and Mrs. J. E. Bramlett, courtesy chairmen.

The hospitality committee, headed by Mrs. H. R. Black and Mrs. Herb Fisher prepared an appropriate menu, with Tamale Pie as the main dish.

Dale Harter, principal, introduced the teachers who are new to North High this year and special guests: Dr. A. N. Posner, assistant superintendent—education; Dr. W. B. Magner, Dr. W. C. Thomas, Mrs. Margaret Denmarsh, Lloyd Jones, curriculum consultants, and Lysle Albro, Curriculum assistant.

Mrs. W. H. Bayliff, North High PTA president, welcomed everyone back to another school year and presented the Board members who were present.

Democrats Announce 68th District Meeting

The Democratic County and State Committee of the 68th District are sponsoring an award dinner, honoring Assemblyman Vincent Thomas and Senator Richard Richards, to be held Saturday, Sept. 26, at 7 p.m. in the officers' club at Fort MacArthur. It was announced today by Vida Wing, co-chairman.

The Committee states that tickets for the Dinner are becoming scarce, and anyone wishing to obtain reservations may contact Rene Dean or John McDonnell.

Stage and Screen Star Phil Reagan will be Master of Ceremonies, along with Television Star Rosemary DeCamp who will present the awards.

Report Injured Youth's Condition Satisfactory

Larry G. McIntyre, 16, of 23826 Ward St. is in satisfactory condition at Torrance Memorial Hospital following the industrial accident that crushed his hands last Friday.

No amputation has been performed on the youth who was injured while operating a heavy industrial press at 24701 Crenshaw Blvd., attending physicians report.

McIntyre was first rushed to Harbor General Hospital and then later moved to Torrance Memorial Hospital for treatment.

Polio Clinic Announced by MD Group

The M.D. Group of 4198 West Redondo Beach Blvd. announces that its next mass polio inoculations will take place at the clinic Oct. 6 between 2 and 10 p.m.

The continuous polio program is held the first Tuesday of each month with shots costing a minimum of $1 each.

The M.D. Group reports that over 1000 polio shots have been given every month since the project's initiation.

Alondra Church to Underline Education Week

Christian Education Week will be emphasized during Sunday morning services at Alondra Park Methodist Church, 3153 West Compton Blvd., Gardena.

With a special presentation at both the 9 and 11 a.m. services entitled "For Every Child" by Rev. Earl W. Isbell.

Following the service, church and church-school members will adjourn to Alondra Park for their annual Rally Day All-Church Picnic, under the management of Fred Hornstra.

Drinks will be furnished by the Woman's Society of Christian Service and ice cream by the Methodist Men. Picnic games will be under the direction of Buff Chase and Robert Kessenich. Prizes will be awarded.

Honored guests will be new members: Mrs. Grace Chapman, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Mogor, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Olsen, Jerry Kinnsch, Robert Brant, Thomas Welter, Misses Diana and Londa Finck.

Aquarium Society Will Meet This Evening

Harbor Aquarium Society will hold its monthly meeting this evening at 8 p.m. at the McMaster's Park recreation hall, 174th and Yukon Sts.

A movie will be featured and the winner of the new club emblem contest presented with the prize of a five gallon aquarium.

All designs, including the winning one submitted by Bertha Hutchinson, will be on display. Tickets for the annual give-away prize of a 15 gallon aquarium with stand, plants, fish and accessories will be available to members.

The meeting will be called to order by Charles Wade, vice president, of Lomita in the absence of Vic Boswell, president, who is on vacation at this time.

Show fish of the month will be the Platy and will include the Wagtails as well as Hybrids. Door prize will be a five gallon aquarium. Refreshments will be served following the meeting.
